LOCAL NEWS

—A big business firm of Washington, D. C., has advertised for women employees "who don't paint, powder or wear puffs." The management explained that the decorated ladies are always poor salesmen.

—While engaged in canning fruit one day last week, Mrs. Maggie Fives, of Bethany, suffered a very painful accident. She was about to tighten the lid on a jar, when the glass broke and severed an artery in the palm of her right hand. Dr.
Burns attended her.

—The fifth Oliver family reunion will be held at Elm Place, Honesdale, Friday, August 23. Basket luncheon will be served at the bungalow at 11:30 o'clock. Swings will be arranged in the grove for the children. All members of the Oliver family will be welcome.

—Word has been received by friends of the marriage of Miss Marian E. Carey to Joseph Opry, a wealthy ranchman, of Douglas, Wyoming, which took place at Omaha, Nebraska, on July 17. Miss Carey is a native of Honesdale and a former resident of Scranton.
They will reside in Wyoming after an extended honeymoon trip.

—William Mullaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mullaney, of Terrace street, was seriously injured while playing in the street Tuesday afternoon. The boys were throwing stones and young Mullaney was hit in the head with a stone, which cut a large gash in his head. Dr. Mc-Conville was called and was obliged to put three stitches to close the wound.

—Rev. A. L. Whitaker received a telegram last Thursday announcing that his mother, Mrs. Samuel H.
Whittaker, had died very suddenly at her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. She had been ill only a short time of heart trouble. Mrs. Whitaker was 60 years of age and is survived by her husband, one daughter and two sons—Mrs. Lester Scovill and Harry S. Whitaker of Brooklyn, and Rev.
A. L. Whitaker of Honesdale.

—That the three-day celebration in Honesdale on August 27, 28 and 29, will eclipse any previous effort in that direction, is now assured. It is expected that many visiting fire companies will be in attendance on Wednesday, while most of the automobile owners of the county have signified their intention of coming for the prizes. Many prizes will be awarded in the civic and grand parade. Come and have a good time.

—The Fire Company of Liberty, N. Y., have signified their intention of coming to Honesdale in a body on August 28 to participate in the Fireman's Day celebration. They make the suggestion that they will come if given an invitation.
Secretary N. B. Spencer has sent the invitation and it is now expected that they will be here on that day. For the benefit of those fire companies who have not made up their minds to come to Honesdale, let us say that you need not wait for an invitation. Write to N. B. Spencer signifying your intention of coming and arrangements will be made for your comfort here.

—Burr Bennett is the name of a new draughtsman of New York city, employed by the Gurney Elevator Co.

—The annual picnic for the members of the Baptist Sunday school will be held in Oliver's Grove, Elm-hurst, on Saturday afternoon. Come and spend a pleasant day.

—A number of Honesdale mechanics and contractors are bidding on different departments of work for the proposed Gurney Electric Elevator company. The contracts will soon be awarded.

—The fifteenth annual reunion of the Ferris, Lee and Cottrell families will be held in their new reunion hall in Mrs. E. R. Foster's grove at Burnwood, Pa., on Wednesday, Aug.
21, 1912. All relatives are cordially invited to attend and enjoy a good time.

—The White Star management has had no information concerning the reported reappearance of Captain Smith of the Titanic, an old shipmate of whom said he saw Smith in Baltimore last Friday. Officials of the line think the case is one of mistaken identity.

—The "Sunbonnet" crowd composed of Misses Ethel Schleissler, Florence Eldred, Florence Smith, Florence Kreiter and Marion Charlesworth, Ralph Brown, Austin Lyons, Warren Smith, Will Rierdon and Lloyd Schuller, leave Saturday for Elk Lake, where they will spend a week.

—Mrs. Annie Frederick, aged 92 years, died Tuesday morning at the family home in Pittston following a brief illness. The deceased had been a resident of that city for many years. She was well known and respected by a large circle of friends.
Among the surviving relatives are two sons, John and Joseph Frederick, and Mrs. Jacob Sharer.

—The Knockers club with their husbands, surprised Mr. and Mrs.
Wm. H. Bader on Tuesday night last, the occasion being an anniversary of Mr. Bader's birth. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry H.
Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. F. Fryer, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Bader and Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd.

—The Carbondale Leader of Monday presented a decidedly improved appearance, when it came out with a new head and a new dress and with an additional column of reading matter to the page. It surely has taken a more advanced place in Pennsylvania journalism. They have installed a new Duplex web-perfecting press and that accounts for the improved appearance of the paper.

—Stirred by the recent epidemic of train wrecks the Interstate Commerce Commission has taken a new step to protect the lives of passengers and employees of railroads.
Recognizing that excessive service of employees may be an important factor, the commission has ordered all carriers to preserve detailed reports of the length and nature of delays in schedules which force overtime employment of trainmen.

—Mrs. Mary J. Williams died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Strong, at Port Jervis, Tuesday morning, of old age, being eighty years old. She has lived in Port Jervis for 28 years, and was an attendant of the Presbyterian church of that place. She is survived by the following children: James A. Williams, of Honesdale; Clarence Williams, Paterson, N. J.; Charles Williams, of Gallon, Ohio, and Mrs. Hattie Strong of Port Jervis.

—The Citizen is in receipt of a postal card from Miss Tillie Weiss who has been abroad for some time: "Point of Three Tongues, July 14th. Greetings to The Citizen from three countries. Am writing on the spot where Italy, Austria and Switzerland join. Sight superb beyond words. Mountains of snow. We are motoring through the Tyrol and have another day of it through Italy.
Weather—perfection. Rode through mountains of snow and enjoyed snow bailing July 14th."

—At a recent meeting of the Wayne County Medical Society at the Allen House, the following officers were elected for the coming year: H. B. Ely and E. W. Burns, vice-presidents; F. A. Lobb, Hawley, secretary; H. W. Brady, president; P. F. Griffin, treasurer. The following members of the society were present: E. O. and F. A. Bang, of South Canaan; H. C. Noble, Waymart; H.
C. White, Ariel; W. A. Stevens, of Scranton; A. B. Catterall, of Hawley; F. W. Powell, L. B. Nielsen and H.
B. Ely, of Honesdale.

—Lieut. Charles Becker, in command of the Strong Arm Squad of the New York police, who is now under fire in connection with the shooting of Herman Rosenthal by unknown persons in front of the Hotel Metropole, New York City, early Tuesday morning, is a native of Callicoon, Sullivan county, where he spent his childhood on a farm near Callicoon Center, now occupied by Mrs. W. Ballard. He has been on the police force for nearly 20 years.
Becker recently raided the gambling house of Rosenthal, and the latter retaliated by accusing Becker of extorting from him as the price of protection. Becker asserts his innocence. Becker was recently summoned to the City Hall, in New York, and told by the Mayor that there will be a strict investigation of his dealings with the gamblers.

—With her chief aim in life to find her brother from whom she has not heard since the two parted at the door of a Catholic Orphanage asylum in New York city about 43 years ago, Mrs. Mary E. Smith Knevez, of New York, came to this place Wednesday in an effort to find Edward Conlon, her missing relative and from information received, it is believed he is now residing in Scranton. Mrs. Knevez's brother was adopted by a man named James Conlon, of Honesdale, March 5, 1869. Mr. Conlon died three years later and the widow married a man named Andrew Connelly. About this time, the boy left presumably for Newburg. A few years after he went to Scranton. Any information as to Conlon's whereabouts would be appreciated by Mrs. Knevez, who resides at 1385 Franklin avenue, Bronx, N. Y.

—The Golf club will give a card party at the club rooms on Friday evening to the members and guests.

—Miss Margaret Carr has resigned her position as nurse at the Miss Mae Weston home on Park street and Mrs. Breiling, of Clemo, is filling the vacancy.

—A party of little folks were entertained at the home of Mrs. I. A.
Hartman on Wednesday evening in honor of her little daughter, Mildred's first birthday.

—The lawn social held on Henry Owens' lawn on Wednesday evening was a great success and a neat sum was realized for church purposes. The ladies of the Lutheran church were hostesses.

—The Maple City Drum Corps will hold an ice cream social on the lawn near the Baptist church this (Thursday) evening, when everybody is invited. The Drum Corps is a useful organization for our town and deserves the support of the people.
Come out to-night and help the boys along.

—The State Forestry Department will soon take over the Pine Grove Furnace tract in Cumberland and Adams counties, the largest tract acquired for the State in years, the search of title and other work having been completed. When this is done the State will have over 1,000, 000 acres of forest land and will add to its holdings a property which will be considerable of an income producer.

—The following Scranton people are staying at the Columbia Hotel, Lake Ariel, this week: E. G. Burke, H. S. Wentz, J. H. Hall, Alice Kelly, Marjorie Farrell, John Farrell, Jas.
McLain, William O'Boyle, E. J. Mc-Ginghan, Arthur O. Reese, Horace L.
Smith, Annie L. Allen, Nancy Johnson, Sherried H. Watson, J. A. Meeham, Blanch Smith, Regina Murphy, Mary Law, Mr. and Mrs. J. J.
White.

—After a bitter fight of over two years Peter R. Pickelle of New York and Milford, Pa., has succeeded in breaking his father's will. Owing to the wealth and social prominence of the family in the Hoosier State the proceedings were watched with interest. Mr. Pickelle made his own defence and literally tore the document into shreds. The Supreme Court ordered a stay saying that a "brilliant lawyer was lost to the world." Mr.
Pickelle's defence was mainly, courageous and most bitter. —From Indianapolis, July 11.

—An account in the Tribune-Republican of a hard shelled egg within a hard shelled egg, caught the attention of men in the store of Geo.
W. Sweigart, of Bloomsburg. Unwilling to admit that this hard shelled egg within a hard shelled egg closed the argument that there was something new under the sun, they literally dug up a potato within a potato and sent it to Scranton for inspection. They are seed potatoes, both the inside and the outside of this potato duet. The inside potato grew to such proportions that it has projected on either side of the outside covering.

—According to our correspondent from South Canaan, Horton Megargel, who resides a short distance from the East school house at that place, has been having more than his share of ill-luck recently. One of the items from the gatherings informs us that Mr. Megargel and his five children have had the old-fashioned kind of measles but happily are able to be around again. Another item is to the effect that Mr. Megargel lost five cows in a terrific electrical storm last week. The loss of five cows is a severe blow to Mr.
Megargel, especially at this time after he and his family were recovering from the siege of sickness. Mr.
Megargel has the sincere sympathy of his neighborhood and friends in his misfortune. —Carbondale Leader.

—The case of Nellie O'Kiefe vs. the township of Teas will be arbitrated. On Thursday morning W. B.
Lecher, T. Y. Boyd and Geo. Rose were appointed arbitrators. The hearing of the case will be held in the jury room at the court house on Friday morning, August 30, at 10 o'clock. The case is a damage suit brought by Nellie O'Kiefe to recover damages to the amount of $2,000 from the township of Teas for alleged injuries caused her by negligence of the township in keeping up a highway near Bethany. She alleges that on November 11, 1911, while on her way to Bethany she lost a parcel. She got out of the buggy to recover it and in the darkness stepped off an embankment on the side of the road, breaking the ankle bone in her foot. She has never fully recovered from the accident.

The special singing in St. John's church last Sunday morning and evening was very much appreciated by the large congregation present.
With Miss Crescentia O'Connell at the organ, the boys' choir dressed in cassocks and surplices sang sweetly.
Perhaps the best compliment the singers received came from Miss Rierdon, the organist and musical director of St. John's church, Scranton.
She told the boys their singing was the finest for their years that she had ever heard. Miss Rierdon and Mrs. M. J. Gordon sang at the 8:30 mass in the morning, and at the 7:30 services in the evening.
The "Coronation March," played by Miss Rierdon as the people were leaving the church, was the finest organ rendition ever heard in St.
John's church. Next Sunday evening at 7:30 Miss Rierdon will have charge of the organ and direct the singing. The Boys' choir will also render select singing.
